

NEW HAMPSHIRE SITE VISIT

AGENDA Thursday, February 19, 2008

---

The Twiga Foundation, Inc.

The Twiga Foundation, Inc., founded in 2005 is a nonprofit corporation dedicated to inspiring, promoting and maintaining family-consciousness at home, in the workplace and in the community. As we focus on the workplace we find workplace flexibility to be a key component in addressing the mismatch between the workplace and family needs.

www.twigafoundation.org

The Sloan Center on Aging and Work at Boston College

The Center focuses on flexible work options because they represent an innovative response to the aging workforce. Research conducted by the Center examines employers' adoption of flexible work options, their implementation in the workplace, and their utilization by older workers.

<http://agingandwork.bc.edu/>

Georgetown University Law Center

Workplace Flexibility 2010

This research, outreach and consensus-building effort is designed to support the development of a comprehensive national policy on workplace flexibility.

8:30 am • Registration

9:00 am to 11:00 am • Introduction States as Employers-of-Choice Project

- Discussion, Characteristics/Practices that Help Define an Employer-Of-Choice
- Review of Overall Survey Results Including New Hampshire's Public Sector Workforce Demographics

11:00 am to 1:00 pm • Community Policy Forum Luncheon

Community Policy Forums are a part of Workplace Flexibility 2010 based at Georgetown University Law Center, a project which supports consensus-based policy solutions on workplace flexibility that meet the needs of both employees and employers. This event will provide participants with an in-depth understanding of the legal and political issues surrounding workplace flexibility, updates on proposed congressional policy solutions, and will provide participants with an opportunity to comment on policy options currently being considered.

1:00 pm to 2:00 pm • How the Public Sector Might Use Flexibility as a Tool – What is New Hampshire doing to Attract and Retain Employees, Including Examples from Private Sector

- Examples of what Other State Agencies are Doing in the Area of Flexibility and Alternate Work Schedules